Too Hard to Hear?

Jesus' followers heard Him teach, "...unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves." (John 6:53).

According to the gospel of John, many who heard this were put off. They said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?" (vs. 60). They followed Jesus no longer and Jesus let them go.

Whether Jesus was speaking literally or figuratively, His words were hard to hear. He was demanding an all-consuming devotion to Him and Him alone, inside and out. And if I listed other hard saying of Jesus (there are many), they would constitute more biblical grounds for a hard study of Christian discipleship. For example:

- "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow Me." (Luke 9:23).
- "Let the dead bury the dead" (Luke 9:60).
- "If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate... even his own life, he cannot be My disciple." (Luke 14:26).
- "One thing you still lack; sell all that you possess and distribute it to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me." (Luke 18:22)

Our elders have seen fit to take on the tough topic of Christian discipleship. Our Wednesday night class is hitting this topic hard! Why? We take seriously the claims, costs, and convictions that come with following Jesus. We don't want anyone to walk away! But if they do, we will keep following Jesus, come what may.
