God is...

*"For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes,
His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen..."*
(Romans 1:20)

I have a question about the divine qualities of God. Wait! It is also about you.

Is there any quality of God that can be better appreciated by us without humility?

Let's see...

- God is creative. This quality, however, may not impress you until you have been humbled by the vastness of the universe and astounded by the intricacy and beauty of His creation.
- God is powerful! This quality may not mean much to you until you have been humbled by your weakness.
- God is generous. To be touched by this divine quality, you must first be humbled by your desperate need for what God can generously provide.
- God is merciful! Those humble enough to beg for mercy are also those who most appreciate God's mercy.
- God is forgiving. This quality deeply moves those who can humbly admit their sinfulness and their need to be forgiven.
- God is glorious. This quality overwhelms those who suffer from shame. From our lowly perspective, there is only one way to look and that is up! God's exalted glory is hidden from those who wallow in arrogance.

These divine qualities (and many more) stand regardless of how much you or I appreciate them. But appreciate them we can and must! But this calls for serious human humility. Only those humble enough to honestly face their smallness, weakness, neediness, sinfulness, and shame can begin to grasp how big, creative, strong, generous, merciful, forgiving, and glorious God is. And He is! JMS
