

The Church of Christ, that meets in Lewiston Idaho, is seeking a full-time Preacher/Evangelist to replace our preacher who is retiring.

Graduates of a preaching school or a Bible college affiliated with the Churches of Christ is preferred. Must have a solid understanding of the authority of the Bible and the ability to interpret scripture using commands, examples and necessary inferences with the ability to “rightly divide the Word of God”. It is expected that he has the knowledge and ability to preach and teach the whole council of God along with making application to our personal lives.

Must have good social skills and the desire to build relationships across all age groups. Good verbal and written communication skills are required.

We strive to follow the pattern of the New Testament Church that was established by our Lord and found in Scripture. We are the body of Christ with Elders, Deacons and an average attendance of about 100 for Sunday Worship.

In addition to a great Christian family, we offer a safe community in which to live surrounded by exceptional outdoor recreational opportunities. We look forward to working together with the successful applicant in furthering the progress of the gospel and devotion to Jesus Christ within our community and surrounding area.
